Coetiroedd Dyffryn Gwy Cyrchfan Arlunwyr a Beirdd

Croeso i goetiroedd godre Dyffryn Gwy, rhai o'r prydferthaf ym Mhrydain.

Mae gan bob tymor rywbeth arbennig i'w gynnig: clychau'r gog yn y gwanwyn, dail toreithiog yr haf, lliwiau godidog yr hydref, a harddwch amlinell y coed yn y gaeaf. Dewch i weld coed deri a ffawydd mawreddog ynghyd â'r onnen, y pren ceirios a'r bisgwydden dail mân. Rydym yn cynnal y golygfeydd hanesyddol trwy dorri'r coed. Maent yn cynnig golygfeydd ysblennydd ar draws ceunant ac afon Gwy, ar draws i Fôr Hafren a'r hen Bont Hafren. Gallwch fwynhau'r golygfeydd godidog hyn drwy gydol y flwyddyn ond yn enwedig yn y gaeaf, ar ôl i'r dail syrthio.

Yn gyfoeth o harddwch ac adnoddau naturiol, denwyd arlunwyr a diwydianwyr fel ei gilydd i Ddyffryn Gwy. Oherwydd helaethrwydd y siarcol, y calch, y pren, y dŵr a'r haearn, gwelwyd unwaith efeiliau, chwareli, odynau a melinau ar hyd a lled y dyffryn. Dyma fan geni twristiaeth ym Mhrydain, gan ddenu arlunwyr a beirdd o Turner i Wordsworth.

Wye Valley Woodlands Haunt of Painters and Poets

Welcome to the woodlands of the lower Wye Valley, some of the most beautiful in Britain.

Every season offers something special: bluebells in spring, lush summer leaves, fantastic autumn colour, and the beauty of winter tree silhouettes. Discover stately oak and beech trees as well as ash, cherry and small-leaved lime. We maintain the historic viewpoints by cutting back the trees. These offer spectacular views across the Wye gorge and river, across to the Bristol Channel and the old Severn Bridge. You can enjoy these great views year-round but especially in winter, when the leaves have fallen.

Rich in natural beauty and natural resources, the Wye Valley has attracted both artists and industrialists. Abundant charcoal, limestone, timber, iron and water, meant the lower Wye valley once teemed with forges, quarries, kilns and mills. As the birthplace of British tourism, a tour down the Wye also drew painters and poets from Turner to Wordsworth.

Dyffryn Gwy – Ardal o Harddwch Naturiol Eithriadol

Mae Dyffryn Gwy yn Ardal o Harddwch Naturiol Eithriadol â'i thirwedd sy'n ryngwladol-bwysig ac wedi'i diogelu, yn pontio'r ffin rhwng Cymru a Lloegr. Fe'i dynodwyd yn 1971, ac amgylchyna 58 milltir o Afon Gwy sy'n enwog am olygfeydd ysblennydd o geunentydd, coetiroedd dyfnant a fferm-diroedd. Mae amrywiaeth o bartneriaid yn cydweithio i ddiogelu a gwella ei harddwch ar gyfer heddiw ac i'r dyfodol.

Wye Valley – Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty

The Wye Valley Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) is an internationally important protected landscape straddling the border between England and Wales. Designated in 1971, it surrounds a 58 mile stretch of the River Wye recognised for its spectacular gorge scenery, ravine woodlands and intimate farmland. A range of partners work to conserve and enhance its beauty for now and the future.
