Llwybr Marchogion y Brenin
The King's Guards Trail

UCHAFBWYNTIAU

Ar y daith hon sy'n hygyrch i bawb, gallwch weld y ffynidwydd Douglas ysblennydd, coed mwyaf Coed y Brenin.

Mwynhewch y llwybr gwastad hwn i'r teulu cyfan ar hyd glan yr afon i weld coed mwyaf y goedwig. Dilynwch yr arwyddbyst ar hyd glan afon Mawddach o'r maes parcio, ar draws porfa'r ardal bicnic ac i ganol y ffynidwydd Douglas enfawr. Oddi yno, gallwch gerdded at 'Bencampwr y Brenin', y goeden dalaf ac ymweld â'r maen coffa. Lawrlwythwch a gwrandewch ar y llwybr sain MP3 sy'n adrodd hanes dechrau'r goedwig bresennol.

HIGHLIGHTS

See the magnificent Douglas firs, the biggest trees in Coed y Brenin, on this walk accessible to all.

Enjoy this flat family riverside walk to the biggest trees in the forest. Follow the waymarkers alongside the river Mawddach from the car park, across the grassy picnic site, and into the heart of the giant Douglas firs. You can walk to the 'King', the tree with the widest trunk, and the 'King's Champion', the tallest tree, and visit the commemorative stone. Download and listen to the MP3 audio trail which tells you how the current forest began.

Description: The blue waymarked accessible trail is a short loop path which leads to the 'King' and then returns to the car park. It is a well surfaced 2m wide route and is suitable for wheelchairs. There are resting points at least every 100m. The yellow waymarkers lead on to the 'Champion' on a slightly steeper gradient and descend back to the car park on a tarmac road with a slope of 20%/1 in 5. This section is suitable for pushchairs and there are no steps or stiles along the whole trail.
