2. A person incubating Schedule 4 eggs shall keep a record of all live chicks hatched. That record shall contain the following information;
 - (a) the date and place where the egg was hatched;
 - (b) if the person incubating the egg is not the owner, then the name and address of the owner of the hatched chick must also be included.
3. Any person incubating and hatching live chicks of Schedule 4 birds must send a copy of the record collated, within three months of the hatching, to the Centre for International Trade, Animal and Plant Health Agency, 1/17 Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Way, Bristol, BS1 6EB, email wildlife.licensing@apha.gsi.gov.uk

5. The incubator of any Schedule 4 bird will, if requested by an Official of the Animal and Plant Health Agency Natural Resources Wales, or a Police Officer, make the bird available for a sample of blood, tissue or feather to be taken from the bird to be sold. Blood samples will be taken by a qualified veterinary surgeon. Such a sample may be used to establish the ancestry of the bird.
6. The incubator of any Schedule 4 bird shall permit entrance at any reasonable time an Official of the Animal and Plant Health Agency, Natural Resources Wales, or a Police Officer, to enter any premises used for the purposes of;
 - (a) inspecting the premises where the chick is kept; and

8. Failure to act within the purpose of this licence as set out in paragraph 1 or failure to comply with the terms and conditions of the licence may mean that the licence cannot be relied upon and an offence could therefore be committed. The maximum penalty available for an offence under the Act is a level 5 fine (£5,000) and/or a six month custodial sentence.

NOTES

Section 7(1) of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 provides that it shall be an offence if any person has in his possession or under his control any bird included in Schedule 4 which has not been registered and ringed or marked in accordance with regulations made by the Welsh Government. 3. This licence may be modified or revoked at any time.
